The Testimony of Figures tic Strength Developed in the Recent Canvass.

We have already referred to the vast power developed by the Democracy of the country in the recent election. Some are disposed to think that we met with an overwhelming defeat. Let the figures we appendcopied from the New York Worldshow the strength of the Democracy. Our freaders can construe these figures for themselves. They are all accurate, excepting that, in our judgment, the number of citizens disfranchised is too high; but taking off 200,000, the result will still show a popular majority of 251,637 in favor of Saymour. It will be seen, also, that up to the present time, the retarns show a Democratic gain of thirty-four members of the House of Representatives:

The popular vote in the Northern States in 1864 was as follows: McClellan, 1,811,754; Lincoln, 2,223,035. In 1868, the same States polled for Seymour, 2,235,920; Grant, 2,517,-000. The seven Southern States that voted in 1868 and not in 1864 polled for Seymour, 447,976; Grant 435,-539. To the estimated vote of these States should be added that of the three States which, by the unwarrantable action of the present Congress, have been excluded from participa-tion in the Presidential election of 1868, namely: Mississippi, Texas and Virginia—Saymonr, 324,876; Grant 149,877. Nor is this all. There are in twelve States over half a million of citizens whom the radicals have disfranchised for partisan purposes. They are thus distributed, and include those who are partially or wholly disfranchised by congressional or State legislation: Alabama, 47,976; Arkansas, 38,600; Georgia, 36,820; Louisiana, 31,648; Missouri, 95,000; Mississippi, 32,830; North Carolina, 28,306; South Carolina, 18,000; Tennessee, 114,867; Texas, 24,351; Virginia, 57,883; West Virginia, 20,000. Total, 545,281. Grouping these 545,281. Grouping these figures together, the result is as fol-

VOTES FOR SEYMOUR—States voting in 1864, 2,235,920; States voting in 1868, not in 1864, 447,976; States not voting in 1868, 324,876; Disfranchised Democrats, 545,281. Total 3,554,053.

VOTES FOR GRANT-States voting 2,517,000; States voting in 1868, not in 1864, 435,539; States not voting in 1868, 149,877. Total 3,-102,416. Majority for Seymour, 451,637.

On a fair vote the Electoral College would have stood thus:

FOR SEYMOUR-Alabama, 8; Arkansas, 5; Delaware, 3; Florida, 3; Georgia, 9; Kentucky, 11; Louisiana, 7; Maryland, 7; Mississippi, 7; Missouri, 11; New Jersey, 7; New York, 33; North Carolina, 9; Oregon, 3; South Carolina, 6; Tennessee, 10; Texas, 6; Virginia, 10; West Vir-

FOR GRANT-California, 5; Connecticut, 6; Illinois, 16; Indiana, 13; Iowa, 8; Kansas, 3; Maine, 7; Mas-sachusetts, 12; Michigan, 8; Minnesota, 4; Nebraska, 3; Nevada, 3; New Hampshire, 5; Ohio, 21; Pennsylvania, 26; Rhode Island, 4; Vermont, 5; Wisconsin, 8.

Total electoral votes for Seymour, 160; for Grant, 157; Seymour's ma-

There have been Democratic gains in the following States: Arkansas, 2; Georgia, 4; Illinois, 1; Indiana, 1; Louisiana, 4; Maryland, 1; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 3; New Jersey, 1; New York, 3; North Carolina, Alabama, Oregon, and West Virginia; Florida votes November 23, and the congressional elections in Connecticut and New Hampshire have also yet to occur. So far, the returns and estimates give the Democrats 84 and the Republicans 119 in the next Honse. The probabilities are that the Republicans will have from 15 to 18 less than a two-third's.

THE ELECTION IN CHARLESTON. -The following is the result of the election for municipal officers in Charleston-the entire Republican ticket. Notice has been given of a protest, on the grounds of fraud, intimidation and carelessness:

Mayor-Gilbert Pillsbury. Aldermen—J. D. Gedings, J. F. Aldermen—J. D. Gedings, J. F. Green, W. McKinlay, E. W. M. Mackey, Robert Howard, Sr., D. Barrow, T. J. Mackey, I. T. Potter, Richard Holloway, C. Voigt, G. I. Cunningham, R. Hampton, L. F. Waul, P. Thorn, Malcolm Brown, M. H. Collins, E. P. Waul, T. Small.

The Captain of the Golden Horn, of the Charleston and Liverpool steamsbip line, on Wednesday gave a dinner on board his ship to a number of prominent merchants, gentlemen of the press, etc., who enjoyed a pleasant re-union, and for a few hours forgot the dark cloud that lowers over that unfortunate city.

Address to the Democratic Farty of South Carolina. FELLOW-CITIZENS: The State Cenral Clab, deem it proper to make the close of the late canvass the occasion of a brief address.

First, we desire most heartily to congratulate the party upon the general result of the canvass in this State. The South Carolina Democracy has proved itself an eminently progressive and growing party. Organized in April last, in spite of the heavy numerical odds against it, it has steadily advanced, and in every election angmented its power until in the canvass just closed, it fell only a little short of carrying the State for its national nominees. A Democratic gain of more than 30,000 over the vote given in the State election of April last, means victory in the future and not failure. Nor should we fail to credit the National Democracy with its achievement in the late canvass, or be unmindful of the vast power it has developed even in defcat. The twenty-five Northern and Western States that entered into the Presidential canvass in 1864, gave to McClellan a popular vote of 1,811,-754, and to Lincoln 2,223,035. The same States, it is estimated, have, in 1868, given to Seymour a popular vote of 2,235,920, and to Grant 2,517,000. Thus showing, first, an increase in the Democratic vote of 718,131, and secondly, that in a popular vote of 4,752,920, Grant has a majority over Seymour of but 281,080, and this exclusive of the votes in the late Confederate States. Including the States voting in 1868 and not in 1864, and the States excluded from voting in 1868, and including, also, citizens disfranchised by congressional and State legislation in Missouri and the late Confederate States, the result is that Seymour received a majority of several hundred thousands on the popular vote.

In the second place, we desire to impress upon the Democratic party in this State, the importance of preserving, in all its efficiency, its present admirable organization, to the end that under the laws of the State and the United States, and in full recognition of the just obligations of good citizenship, the party may gradually increase is numbers and influence, until its principles and policy shall commend themselves to the free and unbiased approval of a controling majority of the voters of the Commonwealth.

Thirdly. The more effectually to keep up the Democratic Clubs of the several Districts, and in order further to recognize fully all the industrial elements that are essential to the prosperity of the State, we carnestly recommend that features looking to the subjects of immigration, agriculture, manufactures and education be engrafted upon each club, so that an organized and systematic effort may be at once made to add to our population, to promote the industries of the State and to advance the cause of popular intelligence. And in order to carry out these auxiliary features to be attached to the Democratic Clubs throughout the State and to devise a uniform plan of action, we respect-Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 2; South Carolina, 2; Tennessee, 2. Total 34. State Central Club at this place on No returns have been received from the 20th of January, 1869, at 7 P. M.

Fellow-citizens, we address you in the spirit of hope and faith. God in His providence has seen fit to deny to us the triumph which we deemed essential to the welfare of the State. If we cannot win, let us seek to deserve success. To the manhood of the State do we appeal. Let the Democratic party of South Carolina remain a power and an influence in the State. Keep your ranks undivided. Adhere to your political principles until better ones invite you to their adoption. From failure gather wisdom; out of defeat get patience and resolution. Preserving your fidelty to the eclectic principles of your party, go bravely and earnestly to work in the field of material development. Thus building up the State upon the basis of labor, and surrounding our political erceds with rounding our political creeds with the solid muniments of wealth, intelligence and virtue, we will redeem our broken fortunes, heal our bleeding wounds, and ere long secure the peaceful triumph of those wise and virtuous elements essential to the dignity of the State and the prosperity of the people.

By order of the Central Club of the Democratic party of South Carolina. WADE HAMPTON, President.

Office of Udolpho Wolfe, SOLE IMPORTER OF THE SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS 22 BEAVER STREET, NEW YORK, Nov. 3, '68. To the People of the Southern States.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as WOLFE'S SCHIE-DAM SCHNAPPS, was introduced into the world, under the endorsement of 4,000 leading members of the medical profession, some twenty years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with the strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to 10,000 physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. 4,000 of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce; all of which were more or less adulterated, and, therefore, unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuine ness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the tion were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed, by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants, by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however, only to have stimulated the rapacity of imposters. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the endorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been elegined Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertise-ments paraphrased, his circulars copied, and, worse than all, dishonorable retailers and, worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick, for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequalled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corressor of the metallic and corressor of the genuine and corressor of the genuine and corressor of the series of t freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States, of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travelers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesme, when we want to the same of the s schapps it those markets; and travelers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself sgainst fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the proparation which bears his name, seal and trade mark, has come off triumphant. He, therefore, feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and expose the Charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity, and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates, from the leading physicians and chemists of this city, will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Scrofuln, or King's Evil, is cured by thrapps as being, in every respect, pro-nently pure, and deserving of medical conage. At all events, it is the pureat side article of Holland Gin, heretofore btainable; and, as such, may be safely scribed by physicians.

Udolpho Wefe, Esq., Present.

Dhan Sir: I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schinapps, with the intent of determining if any toreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonoms or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, or to recommend to others, for medicinal purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours, Udolpho Wolfe, Esq.

Dear Sir: The want of pure Wines and Liquors, for medicinal purposes, has been loug felt by the profession, and thousands of lives have been sacrificed by the use of adulterated articles. Delirium tremens, and other diseases of the brain and nerves, so rife in this country, are very rare in Europe; owing, in a great degree, to the difference in the purity of the spirits sold.

We have tested the several articles imported and sold by you, including your Gin, which you sell under the name of Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, which we consider justly entitled to the high reputation it has acquired in this country; and, from your long experience as a foreign importer, your Bottled Wines and Liquors should meet with the same demand.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable apothecaries in different parts of the city as agents for the sale of your Brandies and Wines, where the profession can obtain the same when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise, we remain your obedient servants.

THE INDIAN SUMMER.—The following lines, by Mrs. Kenerson, will be all the more appreciated from the fact that we have just passed that most delightful season of the year: 'Tis the saddest-'tis the sweetest,

'Tis the loveliest of the year; The time of summer's last sad smile, Ere she's laid upon her bier. Methought she had departed. With all her radiance wild Gone, stranger lands to gladden With her balmy airs and mild.

But no! ah, still she tarrieth, She smileth once again; And from the forests echoeth A low, sad, mournful strain weet songs of rich, glad melody,

Hath she been singing long; And now, with strangely warning tone,

She chants her own death-song. Gray hill, and bleak, wild mountain, Woodland, and glen and vale; Resoundeth with the requiem, The solemn, dirge-like wail;

All georgeous in her winding sheet, Green, golden-hued and red; O'er which a shadowy dimness reigns, As o'er the features of the dead.

Her voice like the seer's, now sound-

In her sorrowful parting lay; And methinks it loudly speaketh Of the coming of decay. It tells that the lovely fadeth,
That the beautiful lasts not long:

Such to me the burden seemeth, Of the dying summer's song. FILLIBUSTERING FOR CUBA. - An article in the New York Sunday News, states that a grand scheme is on foot in that city, among a band of Americans, for the capture and conquest of the Queen of the Antilles. According to this report, 2,500 men of pluck and spirit are all that are required to accomplish this undertaking. These acquisitive gentlemen, however, should remember that there are several little obstacles in the way of their success. Primarily, our Government is in most harmonious relations with the new Spanish Government and people, and the President would feel it incumbent upon him to suppress all such unlawful raids upon a friendly power. In addition to that, the job would be found a difficult one, as one against the Spanish forces themselves, especially as the new provisional government at Madrid is sending out new armaments to keep the ever-faithful isle in order.
